

Leadership Recruitment Letter

By Gordon D. Venturella

Today's date

Dear

You are someone who cares deeply about the mission and ministry of_____. That's why I wanted you to be a part of the leadership team for an exciting new chapter in our history.

Our new capital campaign, _____ , will be launching soon and will impact this church for decades to come. It will be a time of significant spiritual growth for us all.

Would you take no more than 30 minutes at a convenient time next week and allow our coach for this campaign, Gordon Venturella, and myself to visit with you about joining us for this extraordinary time in the life of our church?

_____ will be calling to learn of your availability and to arrange a convenient time.

I will be looking forward to our visit.

Sincerely in Christ,

Pastor
